UPDATES

GANUSSIA BOOK PRESENTATION

Tuesday December 1st at 6pm at the Bangor Public Library

Join us on Tuesday, December 1, at 6:00 PM at the Bangor Public Library for a presentation of Ganussia by Andrey Drobyshev, a Roma student at John Bapst Memorial High School and founder of the International Association of Minority Children's Organisations (IAMCO).

The book tells the remarkable story of Andrey's great-grandmother, a Roma composer who survived the Holodomor, the Nazi genocide of the Roma (Porajmos), and the Soviet Gulag. Drawing on her diaries, music, historical research, and personal testimony, Andrey brings attention to a largely overlooked history and highlights the importance of preserving the memory, culture, and identity of marginalized communities.

This is a meaningful opportunity to learn about Roma history and hear a powerful story of resilience and remembrance.
